Opinion No. 379

AMENDED ORDER

On December 15, 1993, the Public Employee Relations Board (Board) issued a Decision, i.e., Opinion No. 371, in the above-captioned case dismissing Complainant's Standards of Conduct Complaint against the American Federation of Government Employees, Local 631, AFL-CIO, CLC (AFGE). In Opinion 371, we also dismissed the Unfair Labor Practice Complaint against the D.C. Department of Public Works (DPW) but, with respect to the unfair labor practice allegations against AFGE, we retained jurisdiction pending our then on-going investigation. The third paragraph of our Order, however, did not correctly reflect this disposition. We hereby amend the third paragraph of our Order to read as follows:

3. The Board retains jurisdiction over the remaining allegations contained in the Unfair Labor Practice Complaint (93-U-25) against the American Federation of Government Employees, Local 631, AFL-CIO, CLC pending further investigation.
